Tender Supply and Delivery of Aqiqah Live Goats/Sheep, Slaughtering, Packaging, And Distribution of Fresh Meat to Vulnerable Households in Tana River County

INSTRUCTION TO BIDDERS

Islamic Relief is a faith-inspired humanitarian and development organization working to save and transform the lives of some of the world's most vulnerable people. Established in the UK in 1984, Islamic Relief works in over 40 countries.

Islamic Relief began working in Kenya in 1993 and has since provided various forms of assistance to communities in need by offering lifesaving humanitarian aid in times of crisis and ongoing development assistance that helps communities adapt to climate change, earn a sustainable living and get access to basic needs and services, including food, healthcare and education.

We support communities living in arid and semi-arid regions of Mandera, Wajir, Garissa, Kilifi, Tana River and Marsabit Counties to build their self-reliance, with a focus on empowering women and youth.

We aim to alleviate poverty and suffering regardless of race, political affiliation, gender, or belief. Our mission is rooted in Islamic principles of sincerity, excellence, compassion, social Justice, and custodianship.

IRK is thus dedicated and committed to the supporting of communities through direct contact with the locals and effective programming thus positively contributing towards improving the living standards and conditions of target beneficiaries.

The Aqiqah Project is a charitable initiative designed to offer vital support to families in need, particularly within Muslim communities, by helping to fulfill the religious and cultural practice of Aqiqah. In Islam, Aqiqah is a significant ritual that involves the sacrifice of an animal—often a sheep, goat, or cow—shortly after the birth of a child. This act is performed as a way of giving thanks to Allah for the blessing of a newborn, and it is also believed to bring blessings and protection for the child.

The meat from the sacrifice is given to the poor and needy. This distribution ensures that those who are less fortunate can benefit from the celebration, thereby promoting a sense of community and support for the vulnerable members of society.

The Aqiqah Project not only aims to fulfill this important religious obligation but also seeks to strengthen community solidarity. By providing an avenue for individuals to contribute to the welfare of others, it fosters a spirit of collective responsibility and mutual care.

IRK is planning to undertake the procurement of live sheep/goats for the Aqiqah and Adak Project program to support needy households in Tana River and Lamu Counties targeting 4000 households
